

Mark Vest		Q1	8/28
2023-2024		DE GOVERNMENT AND ECONOMICS
Monday	Notes: READING: Finish CH3, get started on CH4. You should be done with CH4 by Wednesday, Sept 6. Monday - CH3 Federalism/Katrina essay due, beginning of class. Finish lecture/discussion on Federalism. Discuss McCulloch and Lopez cases	Objective: Student should be able to categorize and analyze the relative merits of different forms of federalism.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Course standard 4 (Federalism and Nationalism)
Tuesday	Notes: Tuesday - Read Jefferson and Hamilton on The First National Bank of the US - class discussion on which is more persuasive and why	Objective: Student should be able to compare/contrast the merits and needs of federalism and nationalism, using key governance issues as a basis.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Course standard 4 (Federalism and Nationalism)
Wednesday	Notes: Wednesday - Introduce Chapter 4 (Civil Liberties) and assign court cases	Objective: Student should be able to understand the basic constitutional concepts of civil liberties.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Course standard 2 (Civil Liberties)
Thursday	Notes: Thursday - lecture/discussion on Civil Liberties; time to research court cases; no key terms quiz this week	Objective: Student should be able apply understanding of civil liberties theories to governance and legal issues from American history.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Course standard 2 (Civil Liberties)

Friday	Notes: Friday - Labor Day Weekend, no school	Objective:	Academic Standards:
--------	--	-----------------------	--------------------------------