

Name: Mark Vest		Grading Quarter: Q1	Week Beginning: 9/5
School Year: 2023		Subject: DE Government/Economics
Monday	Notes:  READING: You should be finishing Chapter 4 this week.	Objective:  Lesson Overview: LABOR DAY – NO SCHOOL	Academic Standards:
	Notes:	Objective: Students will be able to argue and defend various perspectives on free speech and its limitations.  Lesson Overview: Tuesday - We'll get through a little more on civil liberties, focusing on free speech. You have a reading assignment posted in CANVAS - The Dilemma of Protecting Free Speech. I'll give you time to read in class, consider (write if you want, not required) your answers, then we'll discuss in class.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Learning Objective #2
	Notes:	Objective: Students will design presentations that show their understanding of a specific civil liberties case and its underlying constitutional issues.  Lesson Overview:  Wednesday - Supreme Court case presentation preparation; I'll be at the NHS blood drive.	Academic Standards: POS 110 Learning Objective #2
	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate presentation skills and their understanding of a specific civil liberties case and its underlying constitutional issues.  Lesson Overview:  Thursday - We'll begin our Supreme Court civil liberties case presentations. (Short class due to early release) Any we don't finish today, we'll do next Tuesday when I return.	Academic Standards: POS Learning Objective #2

Friday	Notes:	Objective: Students will demonstrate their knowledge of key concepts related to federalism and civil liberties. Students will develop and argue a position on a question related to federalism and/or civil liberties. Lesson Overview: Friday - CH3 and CH4 Unit exam. I'll include 5 key terms from CH4 on this exam. I'll be out of town, as we discussed.	Academic Standards: POS Learning Objectives #2, #4
--------	--------	--	---